

FRANKLIN POND CHAMBER MUSIC

2013 Labor Day String Festival

NEW THIS YEAR!
Open to students
grades 4 through 12

Monday, September 2
4835 Franklin Pond Road
Sandy Springs, Georgia

- Play chamber music with faculty coaches from the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra
- Improve your sight reading for All-State auditions
- Orchestra audition excerpt master classes
- All-State etude master classes

Students grades 4-6

10 am. to 12 noon $25

Introduction to chamber music

Download, practice, and play excerpt posted online with faculty. Learn what chamber music is and how to play in a small group.

Introduction to sight reading

Tips on how to be good at reading and learning music faster.

Solo masterclass

Bring your favorite solo to play for the class and the teacher.

Students grades 7-12

1:00 pm. to 5:00 pm. $50

Play chamber music with faculty coaches

Music given out and rehearsed with everyone together, then in large and small group rehearsals.

Sight reading help

Help with sight reading skills and practice reading with faculty members.

Audition excerpt classes

Coaching available for ASYO, MYSO & BYO excerpts and All-State etude.

(Participants in the Labor Day Festival DO NOT need to audition for Fall into Spring. If you apply at the Festival, you will be exempt from the application fee.)

REGISTRATION FORM: download from www.franklinpond.org

Limited enrollment — please send your registration form & fee as soon as possible.

4th to 6th graders: Please download excerpt from website and prepare it to play.

Ronda Respos, Founder and Artistic Director • 4835 Franklin Pond Road, Atlanta, GA 30342