

Making the Most of Your Musical Career with Angela Beeching

This February, Angela will be in Atlanta to speak with high school students, college students, and music professionals about their current or future careers in music.

High School Workshop
College/Professional Workshop
Individual or Small Group Consulting
(for high school, college, and professional)

Angela Beeching is a career consultant and author of the popular career guide Beyond Talent, Creating a Successful Career in Music. Today Angela runs career and entrepreneurship centers at Indiana University's Jacobs School of Music, Manhattan School of Music, and New England Conservatory, helping hundreds of musicians create their own paths to success.

Workshop & Individual/Small Group
Consulting Sessions
for HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS AND THEIR PARENTS

Saturday, February 8

1:30 - 3:00 PM

Workshop

3:30 - 5:00 PM

1/2-hour individual/small group sessions
BY APPOINTMENT ONLY

Woodruff Arts Center Circle Room
(3rd Floor)

Workshop: Free and open to the public

*Consulting Sessions: $15 per person

Times to be sent via email after registration*

Workshop & Individual/Small Group
Consulting Sessions
for COLLEGE STUDENTS AND PROFESSIONALS

Sunday, February 9

10:00 AM - 12:00 PM

1/2-hour individual/small group sessions
BY APPOINTMENT ONLY

1:30 - 3:00 PM

Workshop

Atlanta Federation of Musicians
551 Dutch Valley Road • Atlanta, GA

Workshop: $15 per person

*Consulting Sessions: $15 per person

Times to be sent via email after registration*

Registration required for participation

Email fpcm@franklinpond.org with questions

Visit franklinpond.org for more information and to register →

